Our MSc Accounting and Finance (top-up) has been designed to provide you with the depth of knowledge within leadership and finance to advance your professional career. It is a full-time, face-to-face programme which runs for six months.

This Masters (top-up) programme is distinctive in that it enables you to build on your professional accounting career and focus on the next phase of your development. The programme incorporates both finance and leadership modules, as well as an individual project which will develop your analytical and communication skills. You will undertake 60 credits in total which will enable you to exit with a valuable Masters level qualification, which will further enhance your professional standing.

Employability skills are key to all programmes offered at BPP, as such this programme includes a leadership module, as well as a business skills and consultancy project taught by senior finance professionals. We ensure that through the delivery and the assessment of all our modules you will have opportunities to demonstrate your teamwork, your presentation skills and your ability to analyse and solve problems – key attributes required for those who wish to stand out from the competition when seeking promotion.

The MSc Accounting and Finance (top-up) programme is suitable for professionally qualified accountants who have either obtained full membership or passed finalist status with a recognised professional body (CIMA, ACCA, ICAEW).

MSc Accounting and Finance (top-up)

The MSc Accounting and Finance (top-up) consists of 60 credits at Level 7, made up as follows:

1. You will be given credit based on your existing accountancy qualifications up to 120 credits

The remaining 60 credits are as follows:

2. Core modules
 - Leadership for Finance Professionals 15 credits
 - Portfolio Management 15 credits
 - Business Research Skills and Consultancy Project 30 credits

In a typical week, for the 15 credit modules, you will have a weekly three hour seminar. For the 30 credit module you will have a mix of taught seminars and supervised sessions in small groups. You will also need to do significant independent work via the programme Virtual Learning Environment (VLE).
